

2018 Club Championship Results

July 28th & 29th – 36 Hole Stroke Play

The Airway Meadows Golf Club 2018 Club Championship was held on 7/28/18 & 7/29/18. The competitors entered their respective category/division and had to produce a USGA Handicap for competition in the “Low Net” category. A special parking spot is set up for each winner of their division and crystal trophies were presented to the winners. The Men’s Low Gross division was a tie at 160 for the two days. It ended in a 3 hole play off, holes 1, 8, 9 between 2010 Club Champion Dan Feulner and returning 2017 Club Champion Roger Flynn. Roger chipped in on #9 to tie for the first go around after which the format changed to sudden death. They tied on hole (#1) and Roger Flynn won it on the 2nd (#8). The Gallery enjoyed the show of skills with Roger Flynn being victorious at the end. Kathy Jones is the returning Women’s Club Champion with a 2-day total score of 163, Don Streed was the Senior Men’s division winner with a 155 and Deb Kirkpatrick won the Senior Women’s division with a 180. Rock Kirkpatrick returned to be Overall Low Net Champion for a second year. Rock and Deb Kirkpatrick are husband and wife. See the YEAR in the table on web site for more details on participants scores. Congratulations to all who participated that day.
