The excitement was high as teams arrived early with their matching red, white & blue patriotic outfits and decorations on their golf carts. The 4th of July celebration was a roaring success with the winning Blue Team, 28 of them, leaving with beautifully engraved bottles of commarative red wine with fireworks abounding. Cobalt Blue matching engraved cups with handles were presented to the winning Low Team Best Ball scorers Steve Brown and Kathy Jones. The perpetual cobalt blue “Airway Cup” will remain in the Clubhouse for display with annual winners engraved thereon. Lynn Hilpertshauser announced “What a great tournament it was....” And many others said the same. We all knew by the smiles and laughter that a good time was had by all. We look forward to next year when the field will be larger and the competition as high.
