A warm thank you was given to all members for their loyalty to the course and for their helping us grow in all area including leagues, tournaments and membership. A sincere thank you was given to all staff for their areas of work for their dedication to the course and for making Airway Meadows a fun place to work and play golf.

Kevin Nielsen, Pro Shop Manager was recognized for his 10 years of service. He has done an outstanding job of golf management in the pro shop and on the course. A person to look up to for his knowledge of golf and stability under pressure. He was presented with an engraved bottle of wine designed by Member Dan Feulner.

Ed Stevens, Head Starter/Ranger was also recognized for his 10 years of service. Ed is always looking out for the golf course during his work on the tee, on the course and out in the general public. He formed and currently runs the Couples League known as Club 40. He trains all new rangers. We appreciate all that he does and was presented with an engraved bottle of wine designed by Member Dan Feulner addressed to "Mayor Ed Stevens".

Eugene Munger, "Gene the Mowing Machine" from the Grounds Crew was recognized for his 10 years of service with an engraved 10 year celebration bottle of wine. He is as dependable as they come and is loyal to the course always. We are fortunate to have him on our team.
